Indicate which situation best describes yours in relation to this application:

- College student seeking to fulfill needed internship credits through my school
- College student or Career-age adult not seeking credits, but seeking a major one-time service-opportunity in the form of a Missions Trip
- An adult seeking to investigate, or eventually qualify for, a potentially longer-term employment with Pacific House of Mission

Which timeframe of service with PHM are you applying for:

- Full-Time Summer Internship 2021 (May 17, 2021 – August 6, 2021)
- Part-Time* Semester Internship in either/or the SPRING or the FALL
- Full-Time *1-year apprenticeship (May 2—August 5, 2021)
- Full-Time *2-year apprenticeship (May 20, 2021—August 4, 2023)
*(apprenticeship timeframe typically begins with a "probationary" period consisting of a mere "internship" during that first summer, and then upon sufficient performance it continues as a full apprenticeship until the end of either the next one or two following summers).

Please check as true, if true:

- "Upon Initial Acceptance... I will be willing to submit to PHM and to the U.S. government, the running of a comprehensive background check on me, for which I will submit my signature and all relevant contact information."
- "I have read PHM's statement of Vision, Mission, and Convictions."

For the 5 essay questions below please type out your response.

1. What, specifically, has brought you to this interest of serving with Pacific House of Mission; and what strengths, qualifications, giftings, knowledge, and/or experiences of yours do you feel would help advance this Mission?
2. From what you have been able to learn thus far of all that PHM does, which ministry activity do you personally think is the most important, and why?
3. Describe your lessons learned in positions of leadership over others; also, what do you find to be the most easy or natural aspect, and also the most challenging aspect, in working on a team with others?
4. Let's say a teenager approaches you—seeing you as a potential mentor-leader through PHM—with questions about your (or their) own journey with faith, church, salvation, God, or life-purpose. What specifically might you be able to share with them (share with us!).
5. How do you feel about Catholics and Protestants and perhaps people of other Christ-centered traditions working together? What is your willingness to attend other faith traditions' services/ Please share your enthusiasms-or-misgivings about these kinds of ministry settings.
